Atiqur started the business in 2009 after he as a Graphic Design student learned of the worldwide need for photo editing. Initially, Atiqur would do the editing himself but quickly a small team of 7 started growing. Today the team is more than 300 strong and still growing.

We are committed to Success, Profitability, and Growth. We grow our business not only in monetary terms but also on positive impact on society. We believe responsible business is good business.
