Excellent opportunities.

Building Information Modeling (BIM) Coordinator in Perth, Western Australia:

✓

Pros: Given responsibility on big projects in my local area as well as internationally, despite being a graduate. There are opportunities to work and live in any major in the world (as long as Arup has an office there).

✗

Cons: There are times when you will need to put in long hours, but this is typical in most engineering companies in the industry.

Arup cherry-picks interesting projects.
Civil Engineer in Solihull, England: West Midlands:

☑️
Pros: Good working conditions; good top-down communication; Arup looks after us.

☒
Cons: Large office - need to make yourself noticed to get the best projects, promotions and payrises.
