

Home / News

/ ASOS announces continued support for Mauritius' Migrant Resource Centre on AntiSlavery Day

ASOS announces continued support for Mauritius' Migrant Resource Centre on AntiSlavery Day

ASOS announces continued support for Mauritius' Migrant Resource Centre on Anti- Slavery Day

18 October 2021: To mark this year's Anti-Slavery Day, ASOS, one of the world's leading online retailers, today announces the release of new funding for Anti-Slavery International to support the Migrant Resource Centre (MRC) in Mauritius. The investment will contribute to the running of the centre and support Anti-Slavery International in continuing to provide sunshine in the heart of migrant workers. The MRC has been instrumental to working to ensure that their basic human rights are respected and is a place where migrant workers can come without fear to expose their problems, where they

