

The water that bathes our coasts,
the warmth of its light and the joy of our people. At MANGO, we want to share the best of the Mediterranean essence we have cultivated for over 35 years. The taste for a slow life and an appreciation for detail, which we translate from our collections into timeless designs that are committed to the environment. A natural and contemporary style that also unites us through the enjoyment of culture in all its forms.

Mango, Spring/Summer, 1994.

OUR COLLECTIONS

Our Woman, Man and Kids collections reflect, by paying attention to fabrics and details, the essence of Mediterranean style with a contemporary twist.

Unique and Feminine

Our collections dress a unique and feminine woman. The pieces showcase a timeless style while keeping in mind fashion aesthetics and trends.

Trends and comfort

From traditional tailoring to the most informal pieces. Our MANGO Man collections feature the latest trends with the maximum comfort.

Fun and natural

We also want to inspire the little ones. Just like a child, MANGO Kids has a fresh, fun and natural character.

Casual with personality

Mango TEEN is aimed at adolescents. The designs have been created adopting the current trends, while leaving room for personal expression among young people, as they begin to define their own style.

From your wardrobe, to the rest of your home

The culture and lifestyle of the Mediterranean inspires Mango Home, a line full of home essentials in which natural textures, calm colours and sustainable materials are the protagonists.

GROWTH

Our entrepreneur spirit has allowed us to achieve an international expansion
that continues to grow
today.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Our creation in 1984 was the start of a path that continues today. 4 members of the Board of Directors, and visible faces of the company, explain their business career path so that we can learn more about our history.

Jonathan Andic

DIRECTOR OF MANGO MAN AND CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT

Jonathan Andic occupies the post of Director of Mango Man and construction management and has been a member of the MANGO Board of Directors since 2012. He began his professional career in the company in 2005, when he familiarised himself with the creative process, the design of the collections and management of teams. In 2007 he began to manage the newly-created Mango Man line, taking on the challenge to launch it on an international level. His responsibilities also include supervising the construction management area.

Daniel López

DIRECTOR OF EXPANSION AND FRANCHISES

Daniel López occupies the post of Director of Expansion and Franchises. Member of the Board of Directors. In 1996 he joined the company in the Department and since then has taken on various responsibilities, managing the expansion of company and franchise in the Wholesale area.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

When fashion and sustainability share the same goals.

At MANGO we are making progress in constructing a solid structure and vision of our corporate social responsibility, which has resulted in a commitment to sustainable development.

This commitment extends throughout our value chain and our areas of influence and takes the form of a responsible management model based on seeking the creation of shared value with our stakeholder groups.

We want transparency to be the basis of our relationship with our customers, which is why we are explaining our principal goals and actions here.
