

A statement from the Fujitsu Group on the Post Office Horizon IT

The Fujitsu Group regards this matter with the utmost seriousness and offers its deepest apologies to the sub-postmasters and their families.

The UK statutory public Inquiry, to which our UK subsidiary is providing full cooperation, is examining complex events that have unfolded over many years, and we remain steadfast in our commitment to this cooperation. Based on the findings of the Inquiry, we will also be working with the UK government on the appropriate actions, including contribution to compensation.

The Fujitsu Group hopes for a swift resolution that ensures a just outcome for the victims.
