INTRODUCTION

Grand Union Housing Group (GUHG) comprises Aragon Housing Association (AHA) and South Northants Homes (SNH).

The organisation is absolutely committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in its corporate activities, and to ensuring that its supply chains are free from slavery and human trafficking. This statement sets out GUHG’s actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to its business and to put in place steps that are aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its own business and its supply chains. This statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1 April 2016 to 31 March 2017.

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE AND SUPPLY CHAINS

- This statement covers the activities of Grand Union Housing Group who owns and manages approximately 11,000 properties across Central Bedfordshire, South Northamptonshire, Buckinghamshire and the surrounding areas. In addition to providing social housing for rent, GUHG is a developing organisation building approximately 160 homes per year.
- The following is the process by which the company assesses whether or not particular activities are high risk in relation to slavery or human trafficking:
  - All contracts are tendered in accordance with our Tender Specification, Standing Orders and Financial Regulations. In order for a contractor to be successful with their tender and join our approved contractor list, they need to fulfil certain criteria. This would include adherence to and adoption of our key policies and this statement.
  - All building and development companies with whom we work need to fulfil the same criteria mentioned above, in order to join our approved list.
- All policies, strategies and key documents (e.g. Financial Regulations, Standing Orders) are managed centrally with regular review to ensure they remain relevant, accurate and up to date. The current versions are stored on the company intranet (The Hub) and staff are alerted via The Hub when a reviewed policy is uploaded.

TRAINING

The topic of slavery and human trafficking is covered at staff induction and all staff were notified of changes to our Equality, Diversity and Customer Care Policy to raise awareness.
