CBRE’s multi-billion-dollar global supply chain is critical to our success. We expect all our suppliers to adhere to our Global Supplier Code of Conduct and to provide services in a responsible manner. We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and are committed to consistently reviewing and strengthening our processes and systems to minimize the risk of human rights infringements anywhere in our supply chain.

This statement has been written in accordance with the requirements of the UK Modern Slavery Act (2015). The Act requires that businesses with a turnover of more than £36 million disclose information regarding their policies and actions over the financial year to eradicate modern human slavery and trafficking from their operations and supply chain. This is CBRE Group’s second annual statement on slavery and human trafficking. Our first statement was published voluntarily ahead of the statutory commencement of the reporting requirement.

CBRE Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement - March 2018

CBRE Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement - September 2016