California Transparency in Supply Chain Act

Foot Locker supports the goals of the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act of 2010. We outline our actions to eradicate slavery and human trafficking from our direct supply chains below:

Foot Locker reserves the right to make periodic, unannounced inspections of our private label suppliers' facilities to verify each supplier's compliance with our Global Sourcing Guidelines and other requirements. Such on-site inspections are conducted by our internal team or by a third party company, and Foot Locker reserves the right to terminate the relationship with any supplier who fails to comply with our requirements. Private label suppliers affirm that, by accepting orders from Foot Locker, they will manufacture products in accordance with local labor and employment laws, under working conditions that meet certain standards, and without the use of forced labor.
