MODERN SLAVERY ACT 2015: SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

INTRODUCTION FROM ANWARUL HABIB, DIRECTOR
We are proud of the steps we have taken to seek to combat slavery and human trafficking and are committed to improving our practices to seek to combat slavery and human trafficking.

Organisation’s Structure
We are a wholesale supplier of clothing and footwear.

Our Policies on slavery and human trafficking
We are committed to seeking that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our policy on anti-slavery reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to seek to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Due diligence processes for slavery and human trafficking
As part of our policy to seek to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to seek to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains in respect of the use of trafficked, bonded, child or forced labour.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

Training
To ensure a sufficient level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to our staff where necessary.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31.3.2017
