At Camira, as both a major manufacturer and supplier of contract and transport fabrics worldwide, we recognise the responsibility that we share with our suppliers, to buy raw materials and sell our products in an ethical manner. We want our customers to be confident that our business partners treat their employees fairly, with respect for human rights and are not exposed to unsafe working conditions or in any way forced to work under slavery. We believe that when ethical standards are in place, this can improve worker well-being, productivity and quality, which benefits both our suppliers and our customers.

Policy

Camira will not work with any organisation that either has or is found to be knowingly involved within either human trafficking or modern slavery. Only suppliers who share our standards and values will be considered appropriate to trade with Camira and we seek to develop long-term trading relationships with suppliers based on the principle of fair, open and honest dealings at all times.

As part of this commitment we acknowledge our responsibility towards the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with our suppliers of goods and services to Camira. The standards outlined are applicable across the whole of the Camira Group and all our subsidiaries.

Due diligence processes

As a part of our company’s due diligence process we audit our suppliers on a regular basis and will only work with organisations who also commit to the eradication of slavery and human trafficking, and demand that our suppliers make the same demands of
