Modern Slavery Act Transparency Statement

At TSYS we are committed to conducting our business in an ethical and socially responsible way by doing what is right for our shareholders, team members, customers, suppliers and the communities in which we operate our business. We put people at the center of everything we do to improve peoples’ lives and businesses. Our mission is to improve the lives of those around us and in the communities where we work, live and play. This statement describes steps that TSYS has taken to prevent slavery and human trafficking within our business, in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act of 2015. This transparency statement is for the financial year ended December 31, 2017. TSYS’ Board of Directors has approved this transparency statement.

TSYS provides electronic payment processing and related services for payment providers, businesses and consumers in more than 80 countries throughout the world. TSYS is based in the U.S., with offices located in the U.S., Europe, the EMEA, South America and the Asia-Pacific region.

TSYS operates and conducts business in an ethical and transparent manner. A guiding principle of TSYS’ Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (our "Ethics Code") is to act with honesty and integrity. Our Ethics Code is reviewed annually by all of our employees and directors. It includes our commitments to treat all employees with respect and dignity, with equal opportunities for all. It also includes our commitments to supporting fundamental human rights for all people and to not employing underage children or forced laborers. TSYS follows all employment laws and all laws and regulations prohibiting slavery and human trafficking in all of our geographic operations around the globe.

TSYS is committed to sourcing materials from responsible suppliers. TSYS uses a number of suppliers in providing payment services and encourages our suppliers to comply with our Ethics Code. As part of our vendor review process, TSYS engages with suppliers for assurance that they do not engage in slavery or human trafficking. TSYS does not and will not support or engage suppliers when we are aware of slavery or human trafficking in those suppliers’ business or supply chains.
