The Modern Slavery Act

Rocco Forte Hotels is committed to improving and maintaining our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking and acknowledges responsibilities to the Modern Slavery Act 2015. This statement sets out the steps that Rocco Forte Hotels has taken to ensure that Modern Day Slavery is not occurring in our organisation or in our supply chain.

Our policy on slavery and human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. Our Anti-slavery Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Supplier adherence to our values

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. To ensure all those in our supply chain and contractors comply with our values we have in place a supply chain compliance programme.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to our staff. We also require our business partners to provide training to their staff and suppliers and providers.
Our effectiveness and Communication

We regularly audit and measure how effective we have been to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in any part of our business. Our Directors and compliance team will champion understanding and implementation of our Policy within the business and ensure Rocco Forte Hotels is fully compliant.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our Group's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 30 April 2016.
