Supply Chain Transparency Statement

Prevention of Modern Slavery

Millennium & Copthorne Hotels plc (the “Company”) strives to maintain the highest standards of ethical behaviour and governance compliance. We recognise our responsibility to manage our business and supply chains to identify and alleviate any potential or actual human rights violations, including modern slavery and are committed to working with our suppliers to address potential areas of risk and to work together to mitigate any areas of concern.

In accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 the Company produces an annual statement which details the steps taken by the Company and its subsidiaries to prevent slavery and human trafficking occurring in any of our business or supply chains. A full list of the Company’s subsidiaries can be found on page 170-177 of the 2018 Annual Report and Accounts. The Modern Slavery Statement for 2018 can be found below.
