Tysers is a trading name of Integro Insurance Brokers Limited.

This statement applies to Integro Insurance Brokers Limited (the 'Company'). The Company is a FCA registered insurance intermediary with approximately eight hundred employees in the United Kingdom. The Company is committed to conducting business in a responsible way and to meet the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the 'Act').

The Company maintains a Modern Slavery Policy that explains our position and confirms that any form of slavery or human trafficking within the Company and its supply chains shall not be tolerated. The Policy explains our processes in place to address the issue and how the Company complies with all relevant legislation. The policy also includes information on who our colleagues should contact if they have any concerns.

As an insurance intermediary, the Company does not operate in a sector where modern slavery is prevalent. However, the Company remains committed to taking steps to raise awareness internally and take steps to address any potential risks within its supply chain.

The Company uses a central procurement process and as a result, has introduced an assessment process whereby all parties in the supply chain are required to confirm they have controls in place to manage their own risks in relation to modern slavery. The Company also requires all colleagues to undertake annual training to raise awareness of the issues surrounding modern slavery.

The statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and has been approved by the Board.
