About FM Insurance Company Limited
FMI is a UK insurer providing industrial and commercial property insurance. FMI is a wholly owned subsidiary of Factory Mutual Insurance Company and part of the FM Global group.

FMI is authorized by the Prudential Regulation Authority (“PRA”) and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority and the PRA. As a regulated firm, FMI takes compliance with laws and regulation very seriously.

FMI’s Supply Chain
FMI recognizes that whilst financial services are not considered to be particularly sensitive to modern slavery practices, such as forced labour or exploitation, FMI has a responsibility to ensure no modern slavery or human trafficking is taking place in its business or supply chains.

FMI continues to monitor its business and supply chain and employees who are responsible for procuring goods and services understand the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 to ensure there is no suspected modern slavery or human trafficking taking place either within the business or in connection with the vendors we use.

FMI’s procurement policy reflects FMI’s zero tolerance to modern slavery and human trafficking and to make clear that this is also the attitude we expect our suppliers to adopt. Furthermore, FMI has developed a Supplier Code of Conduct to reinforce its stance against modern slavery and human trafficking.
