MODERN SLAVERY

This statement sets out Domestic & General's actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks in relation to its business and to put in place steps aimed at ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in its business and supply chains. This statement relates to actions and activities during the financial year 1 April 2018 to 31 March 2019.

Domestic & General recognises that it has a responsibility to take a robust approach to slavery and human trafficking. We are proud of the steps we have taken to combat slavery and human trafficking albeit we recognise this is an ongoing obligation, and we will strive to update this statement on an annual basis with new initiatives and our progress in eradicating slavery and human trafficking.

This statement was approved by the Boards of DGG and DGS on 28 March 2019.

Download our Modern Slavery Statement 2019

Previous statements:
- Modern Slavery Statement 2016