Our Vision

"The future belongs to our children. We at Triumph shall contribute to building a sustainable society and a natural environment in a way that we can be proud of. It is our vision to be and to be recognized internally and externally as a company that is run in a responsible way, mindful of future generations, and with consideration for what we leave behind."

Our Commitment

We at Triumph firmly believe that as a corporation we have a responsibility towards what we affect with our actions that goes beyond delivering our business goals.

In our endeavor for sustainable and profitable growth we commit to conduct our global business legally and in a responsible and sustainable manner that is ethically sound and concerned with the welfare of our people, our communities, our stakeholders and the natural environment.

Our Activities

Triumph, a family owned business, remains the only major European in-house manufacturer in the branded intimate apparel business. We own and operate a considerable part of our production facilities in different countries around the world. This means that we have direct control over these production centres and can directly implement social compliance requirements that meet high social standards through our local and central management.
