

Modern Slavery Act Transparency Statement

This statement is made on behalf of Premier Miton Group plc and its subsidiaries pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the "Act") and constitutes our anti-slavery and human trafficking statement. Premier Miton Group plc (registered number 06306664) is the parent company of Premier Portfolio Managers Limited (registered number 01235867), collectively referred to as Premier Miton in this statement.

Premier Miton's structure, business and supply chains

Premier Miton's business is UK asset management with a focus on delivering good investment outcomes for investors through relevant products and active management across its range of investment strategies, which include multi-asset, equity and absolute return funds. As at the date of this statement, Premier Miton employs approximately 150 people in the UK. Premier Miton's supply chain includes administrative support and services from large global institutional banks and commercial entities. As a firm with relatively simple supply chains Premier Miton believes that there is limited risk of slavery or human trafficking taking place. Notwithstanding this, Premier Miton is committed to developing initiatives to prevent slavery or human trafficking in its supply chains.

Policies in relation to slavery and human trafficking

Premier Miton has robust policies in place to ensure it complies with the Financial Conduct Authority rules on a variety of issues relating to financial crime, corruption, bribery, money laundering and whistleblowing.

Due diligence process in relation to slavery and human trafficking

Material suppliers are subject to an appropriate level of due diligence on their appointment and on an ongoing basis, and are required to certify that they are in compliance with the Act.

Assessment and management of slavery and human trafficking risks

Premier Miton is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in its supply chains or business. As part of an on-going programme of assessing the effectiveness of its policies, training and due diligence, a review of any key risks is undertaken under Premier Miton's procurement arrangements, which are reported to the relevant boards, as appropriate.

Monitoring and effectiveness

During the financial period to 30 September 2019 we have continued to internally ensure that our organisational policies are followed by all employees and partners of Premier Miton. Premier Miton is not aware of any of its suppliers which do not comply with the Act and no breaches have been reported by Premier Miton staff or partners during the period. As Premier Miton does not have intricate or complex supply chains, no additional measures with regards to slavery and human trafficking have been deemed necessary at this time.

Training

Premier Miton provides comprehensive training to staff on a variety of issues relating to financial crime, corruption, bribery, money laundering and whistle blowing. All employees have the necessary documentation to legally work in the UK and no-one under the legal minimum age for admission to work is or will be employed.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Premier Miton's anti-slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year 30 September 2019 as approved by each relevant Board of Directors.
